Advert Details

Job Start - January 2018 or earlier if possible.

The working pattern will be 9.00am – 12.00 5 days each week.

Working under the direction of the class teacher, you will be responsible for delivering high quality, in class support in reading, writing and maths for all children. You will be flexible, approachable and have excellent communication skills as you liaise with the teacher and other support colleagues to best meet the needs of the child/ren you work with.

To be our candidate of choice, you will need:

- a good working knowledge of the curriculum.
- high expectations in terms of work and behaviour.
- good, personal academic abilities.
- to be reflective in your practice
- experience of working in schools in either a voluntary or paid capacity.

The role may involve additional relief MSA as and when needed.

In return we can offer:

- Effective induction upon appointment.
- Opportunities for further professional development.
- Eager well-mannered children and talented staff to work alongside.
- Regular meetings to communicate and cascade training and learning opportunities.

Visits to the school are welcomed and encouraged. Please contact the school office for an appointment or telephone conversation.

Closing date for applications:

Thursday 17th October- Noon

Interviews

w/b 22nd October 2018
